

BRUSH + YARD WASTE DISPOSAL SITE

Typically, from mid-April to the second week of November (dependent upon indement weather)   The Brush's Site will be open for one day in early January to allow for Christmas tree disposal.   Soo block of Garfield Ave (entrod)   PROOF	HOURS	Wodnosdays from 12:20 nm 2:00	nm and the 2rd Saturday of each month from 10 am. 2 nm
The Brush Site will be open for one day in early January to allow for Christmas tree disposal.  PROOF PROOF Proof of residency is required. The site is for Altoona residential customers only.  ATTENDANT The attendant will closely inspect and re-inspect loads delivered to the site. Anyone failing to remove from the site unacceptable materials found in their load will be subject to fines.  PROCEDURE 1. Only materials from residential properties within the city limits will be accepted. 2. Hauler must see attendant before unloading. 3. Attendant will inspect all loads before being allowed to empty load. 4. Hauler will then be allowed to unload materials at the proper pile. All leaves or grass clippings will be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site. 5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  LOGS Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS ACCEPTED  YES  YES  VES  VES  NO  X Animal waste  Stumps or roots  Y Tree trunks  Y Tree trunks  Y Twigs from theses  Y Twigs from these  Y Twigs from theses  Y Twigs from the site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  The Brush Site is open for Althona residents only.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire (Our Yan Citizer) and the run before the compost facine to neight so for the court of anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, the Eau Claire (Altona) forections: From the intersection double to		Wednesdays from 12:30 pm – 3:00 pm and the 3rd Saturday of each month from 10 am - 2 pm
PROOF   Proof of residency is required. The site is for Altoona residential customers only.	SEASON
PROOF   Proof of residency is required. The site is for Altoona residential customers only.	LOCATION
The attendant will closely inspect and re-inspect loads delivered to the site. Anyone failing to remove from the site unacceptable materials found in their load will be subject to fines.  1. Only materials from residential properties within the city limits will be accepted. 2. Hauler must see attendant before unloading. 3. Attendant will inspect all loads before being allowed to empty load. 4. Hauler will then be allowed to unload materials at the proper pile. All leaves or grass clippings will be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site. 5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  LOGS  Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  YES  NO  Animal waste*  YES  NO  Animal waste*  Stumps or roots  Stained, painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood  Tree branches  Tree limbs  Tree limbs  Tree limbs  Tree branches  Twigs from trees  Twigs from trees  Twigs from shrubs  Tree shrunks  Tree limbs  Crean or brown treated wood or any other treated wood  Stained, painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood  Particle board, medium density fiber board, plywood  Yearticle board, medium density fiber board, plywood  Yearticle board, medium density fiber board, plywood  Yearticle board, medium density fiber board, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  Yolumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  Yolumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  Yolumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  Brush mixed with grass
FROCEDURE  1. Only materials from residential properties within the city limits will be accepted. 2. Hauler must see attendant before unloading. 3. Attendant will inspect all loads before being allowed to empty load. 4. Hauler will then be allowed to unload materials at the proper pile. All leaves or grass clippings will be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site. 5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  LOGS  Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS  ACCEPTED  Publication of the containers and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS  ACCEPTED  Publication of the containers and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  NO  ACCEPTED  Publication of the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  NO  ACCEPTED  Publication of the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  NO  ACCEPTED  Publication of the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  NO  ACCEPTED  Publication of the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs are remove these logs at their own risk.  NO  ACCEPTED  Publication of the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs are read of a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs are remove these logs are read of a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs are read of a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs are read of a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs are read of a designated location. Citize
PROCEDURE  1. Only materials from residential properties within the city limits will be accepted. 2. Hauler must see attendant before unloading. 3. Attendant will inspect all loads before being allowed to empty load. 4. Hauler will then be allowed to unload materials at the proper pile. All leaves or grass clippings will be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site. 5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  Logs Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS  ACCEPTED  ACCEPTED  ACCEPTED  Brush  YES  ACCEPTED  Brush  YES  Animal waste  Stumps or roots  Stained, painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood  Tree branches  Treig from shrubs  Yes and study arnished, vinyl clad wood  Wood with nails  Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  Glass, tires, cans, aerosols, household garbage  All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil  Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  The Compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  The Compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass clippings and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents	ATTENDANT	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
2. Hauler must see attendant before unloading. 3. Attendant will inspect all loads before being allowed to empty load. 4. Hauler will then be allowed to unload materials at the proper pile. All leaves or grass clippings will be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site. 5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  Lorge logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS  ACCEPTED  **  **  **  **  **  **  **  **  **
3. Attendant will inspect all loads before being allowed to empty load. 4. Hauler will then be allowed to unload materials at the proper pile. All leaves or grass clippings will be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site. 5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS  ACCEPTED  ACCEPTED  Brush  YES  NO  Animal waste  Stumps or roots  Tree trunks  Tree trunks  Tree branches  Tree branches  Trieg from trees  Twigs from trees  Twigs from shrubs  Leaves  Grass clippings  Corn stalks  Flower stems or other garden materials  Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  FAQS  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona. Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about	PROCEDURE	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
4. Hauler will then be allowed to unload materials at the proper pile. All leaves or grass clippings will be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site.  5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  LOGS  LOGS  Targe logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS  ACCEPTED  ACC		_ be emptied from any bags or containers, and bags or containers removed from site.  5. Unloaded materials will then be inspected and hauler required to remove any unsuitable materials discovered.  Logs  Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS  YES  V Brush  YES  ACCEPTED  Pree trunks  Tree trunks  Tree trunks  Tree limbs  Tree branches  Treig limbs  Tree branches  Twigs from trees  Twigs from shrubs  Mood with nails  Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  Grass clippings  Corn stalks  Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  Who can use the Brush Site?  Who an use the Brush Site?  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI S4703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about
Logs   Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
LOGS Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  MATERIALS ACCEPTED   YES  NO  X Animal waste  Yree trunks  Tree limbs  Tree limbs  Tree branches  Twigs from trees  Twigs from trees  Twigs from shrubs  Leaves  Grass clippings  Corn stalks  Wood with nails  Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  Who can use the Brush Site?  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about
LOGS  Large logs will be separated and put off to the side at a designated location. Citizens can cut and remove these logs at their own risk.  YES  YES  YES  NO  Animal waste  Tree trunks  Tree trunks  Tree branches  Twigs from trees  Twigs from trees  Twigs from shrubs  Leaves  Corn stalks  Flower stems or other garden materials  Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  FAQS  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  What materials are accepted?  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?
MATERIALS ACCEPTED  YES  Animal waste  Tree trunks  Tree trunks  Tree limbs  Tree branches  Tree branches  Twigs from trees  Twigs from shrubs  Carass clippings  Corn stalks  Wood with ails  Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  FAQs  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Tree trunks  Animal waste  Stumps or roots  Green or brown treated wood or any other treated wood  X Stained, painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood  X Stumps or orots  Stained, painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood  X Stumps or orots  Stained, painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood  X Odoundand enstyle painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood  X Odoundan	1000
MATERIALS ACCEPTED  V Brush V Tree trunks V Tree limbs V Tree branches V Branch Tree paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products V Glass, tires, cans, aerosols, household garbage V All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves V Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it The Compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches. The Compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches. The compost free compost, firewood, and mulch?  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches. The compost free to residents of Altoona. Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available. The Eau Claire, WI S4703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road, about	LUGS
ACCEPTED    Brush	MATERIALS
<ul> <li>▼ Tree trunks</li> <li>▼ Tree limbs</li> <li>▼ Tree limbs</li> <li>▼ Tree limbs</li> <li>▼ Tree branches</li> <li>▼ Twigs from trees</li> <li>▼ Twigs from trees</li> <li>▼ Twigs from trees</li> <li>▼ Twigs from shrubs</li> <li>▼ Leaves</li> <li>▼ Grass clippings</li> <li>▼ Corn stalks</li> <li>▼ Flower stems or other garden materials</li> <li>▼ Wood with nails</li> <li>▼ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails</li> <li>▼ Who can use the Brush Site?</li> <li>What materials are accepted?</li> <li>The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.</li> <li>What materials are accepted?</li> <li>The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.</li> <li>Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?</li> <li>I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?</li> <li>▼ Tree brunk treated wood or any other treated wood</li> <li>▼ Stained, painted, varnished, varnished,</li></ul>
<ul> <li>✓ Tree limbs</li> <li>✓ Tree branches</li> <li>✓ Twigs from trees</li> <li>✓ Twigs from trees</li> <li>✓ Twigs from shrubs</li> <li>✓ Leaves</li> <li>✓ Grass clippings</li> <li>✓ Corn stalks</li> <li>✓ Flower stems or other garden materials</li> <li>✓ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails</li> <li>✓ Who can use the Brush Site?</li> <li>What materials are accepted?</li> <li>Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?</li> <li>Does the Brush Site offer free anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?</li> <li>✓ Iree branches</li> <li>✓ Stained, painted, varnished, vinyl clad wood</li> <li>✓ Particle board, medium density fiber board, plywood</li> <li>✓ Wood with nails</li> <li>✓ Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products</li> <li>✓ Glass, tires, cans, aerosols, household garbage</li> <li>✓ All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil</li> <li>✓ Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves</li> <li>✓ Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it</li> <li>✓ Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it</li> <li>✓ The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.</li> <li>The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.</li> <li>✓ Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.</li> <li>Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.</li> <li></li></ul>	ACCEPTED
<ul> <li>✓ Tree branches</li> <li>✓ Twigs from trees</li> <li>✓ Twigs from shrubs</li> <li>✓ Leaves</li> <li>✓ Grass clippings</li> <li>✓ Corn stalks</li> <li>✓ Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves</li> <li>✓ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails</li> <li>✓ Who can use the Brush Site?</li> <li>What materials are accepted?</li> <li>Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?</li> <li>Does the Brush Site offer free anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?</li> <li>✓ Wost Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about</li> </ul>
Twigs from trees  ✓ Twigs from shrubs  ✓ Leaves  ✓ Grass clippings  ✓ Corn stalks  ✓ Flower stems or other garden materials  ✓ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  FAQs  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Y wood with nails  × Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  × Wood with nails  × Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  × Wood with nails  × Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  × Corn stalks  × Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  × Corn stalks  × Glass, tires, cans, aerosols, household garbage  × All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil  × Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  × Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about Twigs from shrubs  ✓ Leaves  ✓ Grass clippings  ✓ Corn stalks  ✓ Flower stems or other garden materials  ✓ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  ✓ Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  ✓ Corn stalks  ✓ Paper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  ✓ Cards tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  ✓ Corn stalks  ✓ Baper, tar paper, cardboard, plastic, plastic bags, Styrofoam or oil-based products  ✓ Corn stalks  ✓ Glass, tires, cans, aerosols, household garbage  ✓ All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil  ✓ Noumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about ✓ Leaves     ✓ Grass clippings     ✓ Corn stalks     ✓ Flower stems or other garden materials     ✓ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails      ✓ Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  ✓ Corn stalks  ✓ Corn stalks  ✓ Class, tires, cans, aerosols, household garbage  × All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil  ➤ Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  ✓ Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about		_
✓ Grass clippings ✓ Corn stalks ✓ Flower stems or other garden materials ✓ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  FAQs  Who can use the Brush Site? What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Or oil-based products  ✓ Glass, tires, cans, aerosols, household garbage  ✓ All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil  ✓ Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  ✓ Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about		_
✓ Corn stalks ✓ Flower stems or other garden materials ✓ Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  FAQs  Who can use the Brush Site? What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Toes the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil  * Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  * Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  * The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about FAQs  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Flower stems or other garden materials are accepted with grass clippings and leaves  X All metal, iron, concrete, bricks, asphalt, soil  X Brush mixed with grass clippings and leaves  X Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about
Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  ## FAQs  ## Who can use the Brush Site?  ## What materials are accepted?  ## Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  ## I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  ## Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and with grass clippings and leaves  ## Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  ## Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  ## The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  ## The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  ## Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  ## Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  ## I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  ## Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about
Wood that is clean, unpainted, untreated and without nails  FAQs  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Volumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  Yolumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  Yolumes of wood generated by industrial or commercial operations that threaten the capability of the site to reasonably handle it  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about unpainted, untreated and without nails  Who can use the Brush Site?  What materials are accepted?  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Ves, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona. Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Ves, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about FAQs Who can use the Brush Site? What materials are accepted? Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Who can use the Brush Site? The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only. The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona. Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about
Who can use the Brush Site?  The Brush Site is open for Altoona residents only.  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Wes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about What materials are accepted?  The compost facility will accept leaves, grass clippings, and garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Wes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about	ΕΛΩς		· garden clippings only. Residents should note that leaves, grass, and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about	FAQS
and garden materials must be separated from brush and branches.  Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona. Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about		What materials are accepted:
Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about Does the Brush Site offer free compost, firewood, and mulch?  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, approximately one-half cubic yard of mulch and small amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about			· compost, firewood, and mulch?  amounts of firewood are free to residents of Altoona.  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about		Does the Brush Site offer free Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Mechanical loading is prohibited. Limited quantities of finished, unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  Unscreened compost may be taken from the brush site when it becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about		, , becomes available.  I don't live in Altoona; is there anywhere else I can bring my yard waste?  becomes available.  Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about			- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · anywhere else I can bring my Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the yard waste?  North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about anywhere else I can bring my Eau Claire, WI 54703. Directions: From the intersection of the yard waste?  North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about		I don't live in Altoona; is there	Yes, the Eau Claire County facility is located at 5710 Jeffers Road, yard waste? North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about 3/4 mile. The facility is on the west side of Jeffers Road.			North Crossing/State Road 312, go north on Jeffers Road about
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			3/4 mile. The facility is on the west side of Jeffers Road.

City of Altoona | 1303 Lynn Avenue | Altoona | WI | 54720 cityhall@ci.altoona.wi.us | 715-839-6092 | www.ci.altoona.wi.us